Woodard Lane Cohousing Vision Statement

We are an intentional community that celebrates life by honoring the diversity, oneness, and inter-relatedness of all creation. We support ourselves and other community members as evolving compassionate, spiritual beings who recognize the connection to the world community. We benefit in the sharing of ideas, time, skills, tools, and responsibilities. We enjoy communal time while respecting individual and family needs. We value nature, beauty, and ecologically sustainable living.

Do you agree to the following?

Members desire and are willing to:

- Live in community and respect privacy
- Honor differences and respect each other and selves
- Act, speak and listen to others with integrity, compassion and good will (learn and practice Nonviolent Communication)
- Actively participate in the community (meetings, some meals, celebrations, work parties, etc.)
- Use the consensus process
- Share resources
- Live lightly on the land (build and maintain their homes with sustainable practices)
- Demonstrate ability to pay for a home (including creative financing options)
- Take responsibility for their actions, assumptions, and expenses
